Love my new desk, it's perfect for using as a vanity station. It was a little difficult to put together but it was do-able. Instructions could have been more detailed, but it wasn't too much of a problem. The desk also came with a couple of scrapes where it looks like it was dented, but it's not too noticeable.

In my experience with Ikea furniture, some pieces seem to be lower to the floor than others, so just watch out and measure before you buy anything. Also, for those who would like to know, the legs of the desk are in fact reversible and there are clear and precise instructions on how to assemble the desk if you're planning on switching them around.
